

Virginia City Highlands Property Owners' Association
Statement Pertaining to Legal Actions - NRS 116.4109

There are currently no unsatisfied judgments against the Virginia City Highlands Property Owners' Association, and the Association is not aware if any pending legal actions against it. The only legal actions initiated by the Association relate to the collection of unpaid dues and charges by members of the Association. Such actions typically include the filing of property liens and the turning over to the Association's attorney for collection such delinquent dues and charges.